Editorials

A Strong Army

Now we realize that, at a minimum, we must maintain the forces necessary to guarantee the peace for which our young men died by the hundreds of thousands and for which others, in tens of thousands gave their eyes and arms and legs or lungs.

Our wisdom is greater now, for we understand that the tradition of the Minute Man, who spring to arms overnight, no longer holds any truth.

Minute Men cannot leave desks and drill-presses and tractors to operate radar and tanks and airplanes. Minute Men, courageous as they may be, must have at least 18 months of training before they can hope to be soldiers in modern war.

Our Army, for the foreseeable future, must be kept at a minimum strength of 1,070,000 men. That means an enlistment of 30,000 a month to allow for those whose service comes to an end.

This is the biggest effort to maintain a force of such size by voluntary enlistment ever made by any nation. So far it has been a success.

The base for continuing an efficient Army should be a trained reserve. That's why we favor universal training. That's why we think Congress should put through the War Department's bill. That's why we say again to Congress, in this vital week: Don't Delay!

Henry Ford

Henry Ford was an obscure farm boy who, more than any other one person, gave the world the omni-present automobile. He was also the pioneering symbol of the American mass production method and its attendant assembly line.

His name is attached to many things—the Model T, the Ford Peace Ship, Willow Run, the $5-day—and his career had many facets. He was a pacifist, a prohibitionist and an amateur sociologist, who believed in the development of agriculture as an adjunct to industry. But, most of all, he was a production man whose far-flung industrial empire turned out millions of automobiles.

Zionist Reception Meeting To be Held Sunday Evening

The Providence Zionist District will hold a reception meeting for the 1,000 new members and the present membership this Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Plantations Auditorium, Abbott Park Place. A. Aaron Klein is in charge of the committee, which is planning the program. Eleazer Lipsky, youthful Zionist leader, will be the guest speaker. Mr. Lipsky, who is the son of the famous Louis Lipsky, will discuss "Zionism—A Positive Program for American Jewry."

A special script, which has been written by Alan Marcus, of this city, will be presented as part of the program. Gerald Oster, of Pawtucket, is directing the group selected for presenting this script, which is entitled "Next Year in Jerusalem." Music has been arranged by Gladys Kapstein. Refreshments will be served during the social hour, which will follow the business meeting.

See New British "Stall" on Palestine

Seek to End Pro-Jewish Commitments in Mandate

NEW YORK — British action in turning the Palestine question over to the United Nations was condemned by top-ranking Jewish leaders as another British "stall" as well as an attempt to wipe out the United Kingdom's pro-Jewish commitments under the Holy Land mandate.

They charged that the official British note to the U.N., which asked for a special preparatory session of the General Assembly on Palestine, did not relinquish the mandate over Palestine and merely asked the U.N. for advice which Britain is not bound to accept.

A spokesman for the official but voteless Jewish Agency bluntly accused Britain of "seeking international approval for her own violations of the mandate" granted by the League of Nations in 1922. Declaring that Britain had won her position in the Holy Land by undertaking a definite obligation to the Jewish people and was now attempting to maintain her position without "paying for it," he called upon Britain to "carry out the mandate or quit."

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, chairman of the American Zionist Emergency Council and one of the agency's top leaders, said that the British action was "in keeping with (Foreign Secretary) Bevin's long line of stalls and delays."

Silver, saying that Britain had "no intention" of surrendering the mandate, charged that the British hope the U.N. "will absolve them of what they regard as their embarrassing pro-Jewish commitment under the mandate."

Conn. Governor Names JWV Head As Military Aide

Gov. James L. McConaughy of Connecticut appointed Lt. Col. Milton H. Richman of Hartford, Conn., as one of his military aides. Col. Richman, National Commander of the Jewish War Veterans of the U. S., served on the staff of General Patton. He is the first Jew to be appointed a military aide to the Governor of Connecticut.

Family to Adopt DP Youth Resembling Their Dead Son

NEW YORK — When the S.S. "Marine Perch" arrives early next week, a middle-aged Philadelphian will be waiting to welcome an orphaned refugee youth whom he is adopting to take the place of his son, who was killed in action in the U. S. Army. Jakob N. Gold has never seen Bencyen Szerman, 22-year-old Polish survivor of a Nazi concentration camp, his prospective foster-child, but expects to recognize him instantly when he comes down the gangplank because he bears a striking resemblance to Mr. Gold's own son, Berwin, who was killed in southern France on October 29, 1944.

Mr. and Mrs. Gold heard about young Szerman through their other son, Lt. Col. Norman G. Gold, who is now with the American army of occupation in Germany. Col. Gold wrote his father that he had hired a number of displaced persons as civilian employees for the Army. Among them was Bencyen Szerman, in whom he immediately saw a double for his dead brother. The D.P. youth, Col. Gold learned, was the only survivor of a family of seven, and was the same age as Berwin. His father has disclosed that a memorial fund, created by his friends in the name of his dead son, will be used to help Szerman complete his education, which was interrupted by the Nazis.

Among the entertainers, in addition to those mentioned in previous issues of the Herald, will be: Martin Curran, Harry Albert, Hy Cotton, Moe Borod, Shepley Gray and Dr. Stanley Summer. The "women" in the cast will include the trio of Kelley, Bosler and Dick. Another feature will be a trained chorus of 35.

Rankin Attempts to Link Communism With Zionism

WASHINGTON — The two reasons the public is not informed of the daily anti-Semitic and false statements in the House of Representatives by John Rankin of Mississippi are:

1. Rankin gets the proof-sheets of the Congressional Record and kills some of the worst remarks he has made on the floor.

2. The press, instead of publishing his outrageous statements, as well as his lies directed against Jews and Zionists, plays Rankin's game of aiding in the suppression.

Here are a few samples of Rankin's milder remarks. On March 11:

"At last some of us members of the Congress are getting tired of seeing and hearing the gentleman from N.Y. (Mr. Celler) rise on this floor and attack Great Britain, a friendly country, for resisting what we consider a communist front movement in Palestine known as the Zionist movement."

The smear of the Zionists occurs on page 160-1 of the transcript. It follows:

"Mr. Bullitt (former ambassador to Paris and Moscow): I personally don't feel that there is any racial issue in this fight against communism, whatsoever.

"Mr. McDowell: That is a very fine statement.

"Mr. Rankin: When you get along further, and if you will talk to these high class American Jews, you will find just what I am telling you.

"The Chairman: I think this part of the discussion is out of order, and I would suggest that the gentleman from Mississippi confine his questions to the statement that Mr. Bullitt made, and also to pertinent matters.

"Mr. Rankin: Now, Mr. Bullitt, I want to ask you about this drive against the British Empire. You realize, of course, there is a terrific drive being made now in Great Britain—

"Mr. Bullitt: Yes, sir.

"Mr. Rankin (continuing): by what they call the Zionists. Isn't that a communist front?

"Mr. Bullitt: No.

"Mr. Rankin: What is the difference?

Mr. Bullitt: No, no.

"Mr. Rankin: What is the difference.

"Mr. Bullitt: No, Mr. Congressman, to call the Zionists a communist front is, I think, to disregard the history of the past 40 years. . . ."

The foregoing transcript does not indicate the tone of the hearings. Reporters who were present inform that Rankin frequently lost his temper, that he bellowed defiance when the chairman tried to stop him, and that even his fellow witch-hunters expressed disgust with his actions, and that Bullitt had to shout his "no, no" in anger.

Anti-Semitic Stamp Sent From New York

LONDON — What may be an attempt to spread anti-Semitism through transatlantic mail was disclosed this week by the Manchester Guardian.

The newspaper reports the receipt at its office of a postcard, cancelled at the Grand Central Post Office, New York City, and bearing a large stamped inscription reading "Censored by the Jewish Press." The newspaper asserts that a similar stamp was recently found on other mail arriving here from the United States.

The postcard bore a cryptic five-line verse referring to asses, rats, owls and atomic bombs, too vague to be intelligible. The Manchester Guardian advances the possibility that the stamp may have been added after the card was mailed and poses the question whether a postoffice employee may be responsible.

Spring Cleaning

By BERNARD SEGAL

A number of notes, corrections, and inquiries referring to previous columns, have accumulated in my folder during the winter. Now that spring is here, I wish to do a little cleaning of my own, and clean up some of these matters.

The name Zafrirah signed under the "Letter from Palestine", intrigued a great number of people. The questions asked concerned the origin, the meaning, the antiquity of the name, and what is it in English?

Name Palestinian

Well, the name is new and it is characteristically Palestinian. The word is of Talmudic origin, and means Morning, or the Morning Spirit. It is new as a name for a girl, and it is typical of the new trend in names among the Chalutzim. They frequently go to natural phenomena in choosing a name for a child, especially for a girl. Thus we commonly find such names as Shoshanah, a flower; Tamarah, a Palm tree; Avivah, daughter of Spring-time. Then there are Peninah, the pearl; Adinah, the tender one; Havivah, the lovely one. Expectant parents who are sampling names while the stork is on his way, may get fine ideas by consulting a list of Palestinian names. They compare favorably with such names as Cynthia, Cyrille, Ira and Russel.

Some readers are exceedingly thorough, and they will discover an error overlooked by most people.

Free Loan Dues

Take the matter of two hundred dollars above actual cost which I was about to charge for life membership in the Hebrew Free Loan Association. I stated that life membership dues are $250, while Mr. Michael Cohen, who knows better, since he is president of the agency, is willing to make you a life member for the mere payment of $50. I am guilty of overcharging. Now that you know the real price, will you enlist as life member in the membership drive to take place soon?

Oldest Synagogue

Or the case of Mr. John Solomon who calls attention to claims made in a publicity release by the Ahavath Sholom building fund committee. It concerns the historical accuracy in referring to Ahavath Sholom as the "oldest orthodox synagogue in Providence." Mr. Solomon points out that Sons of Zion was organized in 1875, while Ahavath Sholom was not in existence until 1904. He is right of course, but he, in turn, is commiting another historical error in claiming that honor for Sons of Zion. In this Mr. Solomon is not alone. Many others share this opinion incorrectly.

Historical Accuracy

I consider the matter of priority quite important, and am glad to see readers who care about such things. In the interest of historical accuracy I am offering the data in my possession with respect to the first three congregations in Providence.

1855, charter issued for the first Jewish congregation in the city, the Sons of Israel. Rabbi Moses Cohen, orthodox, the first spiritual leader.

1872, second Jewish congregation in the city, Sons of David (not to be confused with Beth David), with Rabbi Isaac Rosenfeld, orthodox, as spiritual leader.

1875, congregation Sons of Zion organized, with Reverend Lazarus Feinsilver as reader (Chasan).

The first two congregations united in 1877 as Sons of Israel and David. The combined congregations came under the influence of the reform movement and called on Rabbi Jacob Voorsanger to become the first reform Rabbi in the city. Beth-El of today is the spiritual heir to the two pioneer congregations Sons of Israel and Sons of David.

In the light of these records, it is only correct to say that Sons of Zion is the oldest orthodox synagogue in existence today, but it is incorrect to refer to it as the first orthodox synagogue in Providence. Still less correct is it to apply this title to Ahavath Sholom or any other synagogue in the city.

A CAREER IN THE ARMY?

• Enlisting in the U. S. Army means a lot more today than simply signing up for 3 years or more of service. It gives you a start on a career that is superior in many respects to any other you could choose.

In the Army, you can advance as rapidly as your abilities and length of service permit. You are paid while you learn a skill or trade that can mean money in your pocket in later years. All your essential expenses, such as food, clothing, quarters, medical and dental attention are cared for. You may travel to far corners of the earth. And you can retire with a life income after only 20 or 30 years of service.

What's more, an Army career gives you a job that is important to your country, and which will earn you the respect and admiration of your fellow citizens.

An Army career is a good thing to think about—and talk over at your U. S. Army Recruiting Station.

Beth-El Bowling

By JACK FLEISIG

With one week left in the regular bowling season, things are really humming. In the American league, four points separate the first three teams in the league standing. F. Mellion's team is on top by three points ahead of Al Gordon's team, which in turn is ahead of H. Gordon's team by one point. I hope this is not too confusing to the uninitiated. I know it is to me. In the National league B. Ross' team has matters pretty much their own way and are already in.

I understand that the prizes this year are terrific. Such as a 1947 car, a grand piano, a set of furniture, all for a small down payment. Seriously, though, there are some nice things, as we shall see at the dinner. The date of the dinner will be announced soon.

Don't forget the Inter Temple bowling match on the 24th, and make sure you are there.

New Judaean Clubs Meet at Beth-Israel

Three new Judaean clubs, which were formed at the recent Beth-Israel Youth Rally, met for the first time last week at the Temple. The leaders, Eunice Orodenker, Vivian Orodenker, Bernice Chase and Leonard Jewett, met their respective groups and explained the program to them. Following the meeting all the clubs, including the already active group, which is led by Mary Weisman and Rae Rubin, gathered in the vestry and sang and danced Palestinian numbers, which were led by William Melzer, president of the leaders' council. The clubs will meet again on Wednesday evening, April 16, at 7 o'clock. All young people between the ages of 10-14 are invited to attend.

Canteen to Have Passover Dance

The first annual Passover dance of the Kozy Korner Klub, teenage canteen sponsored by the Jewish Community Center, will be held at the Congregation Sons of Abraham vestry tomorrow evening, April 12. Music will be furnished by Ray Beach and His Orchestra. Charles Silverman will be the guest for the evening. Those who will participate in the Passover Fest, which has been arranged by the committee in charge are: Marcia Chase, Beverly Resnick, Jerry Cerel and Frank Feldman.

NEW MEETING HALL

Isidor Baker, president of the R. I. Jewish Fraternal Association, has announced that the new meeting hall for the organization will be the Sons of Abraham Synagogue, Potters and Prairie avenue. Because of the holiday the next regular meeting will not be held until Thursday evening, April 24.

Beth Israel Bowling

By JACK EPSTEIN

Aaron Bromson, the chairman of our Bowling League, is now busy arranging the four teams who will compete in the Inter-Temple Bowling Meet. That's one job, my friends, that we don't envy him for. One thing we do know is, that it will be done right.

Little Penn again took mighty Navy for 3 and is now tailing them by 8 games. Cornell took 3 from Princeton to climb within one game of them and third place.

"I notice that Abe Robrish, our plumber, couldn't take it—just watch Phil Gladstein or M. Press give him a going-over when it's his turn to bowl. Speaking of M. Press, was there anyone at the Alleys when he bowled that high three of 379? Time is running out, so you had better hurry if you want to get into some of the individual honors.

Emanuel Bowling

By MAXWELL WALDMAN

Jack Platkin's Navy team, handicap champions are setting a terrific pace in the American League, having won fourteen straight points. Lou Millen's Tigers kept in the running by taking three hard won points from Myron Keller's Yankees.

Strikes to Spare

Dave Spunt, famous back foot slide over artist, packs a terrific sock in his so-called slow ball as the Pirates found out to their sorrow. Dave is a dangerous opponent. Babe Chase slid over several impossible spares in a vain effort to rouse Army. Skipper Jules Zucker had no "nerves" as he blasted out a big last box spare to win three for his team. Milt Wintman has developed a terrific "screw" ball that hangs in the center of the alley and then reverses sharply to the right. Billy Kagan is controlling his curve much better. Murray Burrows is also getting good.

Mike Miller blasted out scores of 132 and 117. Reizen hit 130. Jules Zucker hit 118 and Morris Kramer continues his excellent bowling with strings of 123, 107 and 102. Max Weinberg hit 324.

Mrs. Daniel Kouffman, program chairman, introduced Rabbi Israel M. Goldman, who conducted the seder. Cantor Joseph Schlossberg led in the singing. The following children participated in the service: Murray Friedman, Martin Bloomfield, Stephen Woolf, Richard Fish, Ruth Charon, Marc Kouffman and Myrna Sobel.

Free Loan Women To Sponsor Bridge

Final plans have been made for the mah jong and bridge, which the Ladies' Hebrew Free Loan Association will sponsor on Wednesday afternoon, April 23, at the Jewish Community Center. The committee assisting Mrs. Morris Eisenstadt and Mrs. Max Silverman includes: Mesdames John Newman, treasurer; Jack Melamut, Ira Kulman, Jacob Bilsky, Morris A. Snow, Manuel S. Bloom, Joseph W. More than 150 persons attended the donors' tea. Mrs. Hyman Cokin, Mrs. Louis Cokin and Mrs. William Felner poured. Mrs. Charles Scheer and Mrs. Edward Small had charge of the fund-raising campaign for the benefit of Palestine supplies. Prizes were awarded to the following: Mesdames Abraham Oster, Max Berry, Arthur Weiner, David Gollner, Barney Fradin, Samuel Cokin, David Garfinkel, Hyman Bernstein, Aaron Sinel and Milton London, and the Misses Sonia Pomerantz, Sue Ellen Wittner and Arline Goldstein.

Beth-Israel Has Community Seder

A community seder was held at Temple Beth-Israel last Saturday evening. Sixty-five members and their families attended. The meal was prepared by the women of the Temple, under the direction of the Mesdames Oscar Klemer, Samuel Ernstof, Charles Greenstein, Morris Schussheim and Irving Arnoff. The traditional seder service was conducted by Rabbi Schussheim. Community singing and the dancing of the Horah followed. Irving Brodsky, program chairman for the Temple, was in charge of the affair. The four questions were asked by Howard Greenstein, with the English translation by Ira Zimmerman and Bertha Arnoff. Explanatory readings of the service were given by Irving Brodsky, Coleman Zimmerman, Arnold Galkin, Mrs. Israela Ross and Dr. Samuel Bojar. The four cups of wine were presented by Rabbi Schussheim, Leo Bojar, Benjamin Elman and Morris Narva.

PLANNED ANTI-SEMITISM

LEDGEMONT
Country Club News

By MURRAY TRINKLE

A sure sign of spring is the setting at Ledgemont where the hopeful golfers vie for the honor of getting off to the earliest start. Jimmy Young, Arthur Kaplan, Harvey Cohen, Nate Samors and Al Shore seem to have tied Julie Bloom, Harry Fowler and Mo Mickler for the title. Perhaps we should have a playoff.

Lew Myers has set in his stakes and with plenty of golf equipment on hand the boys should all be in for a banner year. Many of the boys will be out after Barney Kay's scalp and as a starter the club champ was bady trounced by a couple of veterans only last week.

Until the dining room is opened and Joe Ress plays his first round of golf, the season is still unofficial, but it is rumored around that Lennie Levin is taking his golf seriously this year. Even took an extended vacation in Florida to counteract Martin Silverstein's winter practice sessions overlooking the Pacific.

ADL Charges Union is Red

NEW YORK — Charges of unfair labor practices are slated to be filed this week against the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith by Local 19, Social Service Employees' Union, United Office and Professional Workers of America, CIO.

The ADL refused to recognize Local 19 as the bargaining agent for its clerical employees, alleging that the union has "the well-known reputation of having a Communist-dominated leadership." The union termed the ADL's action profoundly undemocratic" and claimed the ADL had "not a shred of evidence" to prove its accusation.

May File Claims For Losses in Zion

JERUSALEM — A Jewish Agency Executive member has conferred with U.N. delegates in New York on "probable Jewish claims" against Britain for losses suffered by the Jewish community in Palestine under British martial law, a reliable source said this week.

One agency official estimated the loss at $4,000,000 a day. This was the first authoritative indication that Jewish leaders might be considering a direct appeal to the U.N. against Britain.

Marriage Counsellor

Reprinted from N. Y. Post

By MARY BRAGGIOTI

For 25 years Dr. Abraham Stone has been doing everything in his power to keep husbands and wives living happily together.

And his power is considerable. He is vice-president of the Planned Parenthood Federation of America, which is currently running its first national campaign for funds.

Last month he was one of the two winners of the third annual Lasker Award, presented through the Albert and Mary Lasker Foundation, for "distinguished leadership in marriage counseling."

Obstacles in Matrimony

"Marriage troubles," said Dr. Stone in his small office at the Margaret Sanger Research Bureau, "are usually caused by personality incompatibility or sexual maladjustments. As a physician, I'm interested primarily in the latter field."

In print that statement labels Dr. Stone as a flint-hearted man of science. In life he radiates the warm qualities of a human being humanely interested in helping to iron out trouble. His quiet, friendly, confidence-inspiring manner seems to bear no relation to the well-known professional bedside manner. The unusual steadiness of his pitch-black eyes as he listens to the stories of those who visit him for advice is encouraging rather than disconcerting.

"Incidences of difficulties in wartime marriages are still mounting," said Dr. Stone. "Men and women who married hastily when the husband was leaving for overseas are coming together now and finding themselves absolutely incompatible."

"Another bad factor in marriage today," he continued quietly, "is the housing shortage—young married people having to live with their in-laws. It disturbs completely their adjustment to each other because they're always up against the strains and stresses of the household. Naturally, they postpone child-bearing.

"Two young people came to me five months after their marriage. They were on the verge of a breakup. I found them compatible from many points of view—but they were living with their in-laws. Sexual adjustment was impossible. They were constantly in fear of having a baby."

A Place Of Their Own

Housing shortage or no housing shortage Dr. Stone insisted that they move to a place of their own. They actually succeeded in finding a tiny apartment.

"That was a year and a half ago," said the doctor. "Only the other day I saw her again. Everything seemed straightened out and she told me they were planning a pregnancy."

Dr. Stone was born in White Russia in 1890 and came here all alone at the age of 12 to live with an uncle. Although he has no medical ancestry (his father was a merchant), he always wanted to be a doctor. He was graduated from N. Y. U. and in 1912 achieved his M.D. at what was then the Bellevue Medical College.

Dr. Stone's own romance bloomed in the medical world, too—and his marriage was a wartime one. He met Hannah Mayer, a bacteriologist and serologist at Bellevue, when he was an interne at that hospital. They were married just before he joined the army as a lieutenant in the medical corps during World War I.

While he was away his bride, to whom he always refers as "Dr. Hannah," began studying medicine herself. After her internship and until her death in 1941, Drs. Hannah and Abraham practiced medicine together, from the same office.

(To Be Concluded Next Week)

It Happened This Week

Mrs. Bertram L. Bernhardt, who, with her husband, is on a trip to Switzerland, has written home of the dire poverty and distress she is encountering during her travels....She says she has not been warm since she landed in England; that she sees no well-dressed women anywhere....This is an eye-witness reason why everyone should support the current SOS campaign to save overseas survivors....

Travel Note

Al Coken and Leo Rabb have returned from a two-week fishing trip to Key West, Fla., and Cuba ....One of the fish that Al caught, a 58-inch barracuda, has been entered in the annual tournament in Florida....

Entertainment

Nathan Samdperil told us this week not to miss the Emanuel Men's Club show "Montmorency's Memoirs" which will be shown at the Hope High School Auditorium next Thursday night....Directed by Ben Kaplan, Nate says that the show has a barrel of laughs.

Correspondence

Will the person who sent us an anonymous note this week call us? No names will be asked but we will answer your question....

Bowling Tournament

Much interest has been displayed in the Herald Inter-Temple Bowling Tournament which will be held Thursday night, April 24, at the R. I. Recreation Bowling Alleys on North Main street.... To those other leagues which asked for entry blanks, here's the reason we can't expand the tournament this year—lack of alley space....We're trying to reserve a complete alley for an evening next year and have the tourney open to everyone....
