Donor(s) give(s), transfer(s) and assign(s) to RIJHA, subject to the Terms and Conditions specified below, all rights, title and interests (including all copyright, trademark and related interests*), in, to and associated with the Historical Materials described above. The Donor(s) affirm(s) that the Donor(s) own(s) said materials and that to the best of the Donor's/Donors' knowledge Donor(s) have such right, title and interests to give and that said Historical Materials were collected or acquired in accordance with applicable laws. *Donor(s) also transfer(s) to the RIJHA the copyright and literary property rights in the Historical Materials in so far as such rights are held by the donor without any conditions, except as are specifically stated above under Description of Historical Materials.

The RIJHA will deposit the Historical Materials in their archives.

Terms and Conditions

Researchers who meet the requirements set by the RIJHA may have full access to the Historical Materials, including the right to make single in lieu of notetaking and the RIJHA may display the Historical Materials publicly or make any other use of the Historical Materials the RIJHA deems consistent with its mission, unless limiting conditions are specifically stated as follows:

DISCLAIMER

Due to conflict of interest which might arise, the Internal Revenue Department advises museums and archives against appraising their gifts for the donors. Because of limited funds, the RIJHA cannot hire an appraiser. If you want your item appraised for income tax purposes, please do so before the item is given to the RIJHA.

The RIJHA reserves the right to deaccession items from its collection. The RIJHA will make reasonable efforts to notify the Donor(s) or the Donor's (Donors') successors in interest, the current identities of which shall be provided by the Donor(s) to RIJHA without obligation on the part of the RIJHA to make independent investigation, of its intention to deaccession the Historical Materials. Deaccessioned Historical Materials shall be:
