

OBITUARY

ABEL, DR. HERBERT

Buried Today

The funeral of Dr. Herbert Spencer Abel, dermatologist at several hospitals of the State, was held this morning, with Rabbi William G. Braude of Temple Beth-El officiating. Dr. Abel died yesterday in his 31st year after a heart attack.

DR. H. S. ABEL DIES OF HEART AILMENT

Dr. Herbert Spencer Abel, 107 Medway street, dermatologist on the staff of several hospitals, died this morning at 5 o'clock at the Memorial Hospital at Pawtucket. He was in his 31st year. About a month ago Dr. Abel suffered a heart attack, and a second attack resulted in his death this morning.

Born at Bradford, Mass., Dr. Abel came to Providence in 1919 with his parents. He was graduated from Point street grammar school and Classical High and then went to Harvard University, where he was graduated with high honors. After leaving Harvard he studied medicine at the Cornell Medical School and served his internship at the Skin and Cancer Hospital in New York city and at Beth Israel Hospital in Boston.

Dr. Abel was treasurer of the Jacobi Medical Society of Providence. He was on the staff of the Beth-Israel Hospital in Boston, the Chapin Hospital, the Rhode Island Hospital and the Miriam Hospital. He was a member of the Providence Medical Society and the Rhode Island State Medical Society. Besides his wife, Mrs. Adele (Rubinstein) Abel, he leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Abel and one brother, A. Lincoln Abel.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at the funeral home of Max Sugarman, 150 Randall street, at 10 o'clock. Rabbi William G. Braude of Temple Beth-El will officiate.

Dr. Herbert S. Abel, Noted Dermatologist, Dies at Age of 31

Dec 5 - 1934

Members of the medical profession and many friends were among those who attended the funeral services of Dr. Herbert Spencer Abel conducted Tuesday morning at the Max Sugarman Funeral Home with Rabbi William G. Braude of Temple Beth-El officiating. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Bearers were Dr. John Greenstein, Dr. Louis Kramer, Dr. Banice Fehrborg, Dr. James Krasnoff, Dr. Milton Goldenberger, Arthur Lynch, Arthur Levy and A. Abel.

Dr. Abel of 107 Medway street, dermatologist on the staff of many hospitals, died Monday morning at the Memorial Hospital in Pawtucket. He was in his 31st year. About a month ago, he suffered a heart attack and a second attack resulted in his death Monday.

From Bradford, Mass., where he was born in 1903, Dr. Abel and his parents came to Providence in 1919. He was graduated from Classical High School and after receiving high honors at Harvard University, he studied medicine at Cornell Medical School. He served his internship at the Shin and Cancer Hospital in New York City and at Beth Israel Hospital in Boston.

Dr. Abel was on the staff of the Beth-Israel hospital in Boston, the Chapin hospital, the Rhode Island hospital and the Miriam hospital. Treasurer of the Jacobi Medical Society of Providence, he was also a member of the Providence Medical Society and the R. I. State Medical Society.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Adele (Rubinstein) Abel; his parents Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Abel, and a brother, A. Lincoln Abel.