PJB 4-20-04

Providence

DAVID ABRAMS, 91, of 24 Sixth St., a retired delicatessen owner, died Sunday at home.

He was the husband of Rose (Wainer) Abrams. They had been married 59 years. Born in Providence, a son of the late Arnold and Rose Abrams, he had been a lifelong resident of the city.

Mr. Abrams had been the owner of the former Star Delicatessen for 25 years before retiring 30 years ago.

He was a member of Congregation Sons of Jacob Synagogue.

Mr. Abrams was a member of the Cranston Seniors, the former Majestic Senior Guild and the Lions Club. He enjoyed fishing.

A Navy veteran of World War II, he was a member of the Jewish War Veterans Post 533.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Arlene DiRobbio of North Providence and Lois Abrams of Venice, Fla.; a granddaughter, and two great-grandchildren. He was a brother of the late Philip and Irving Abrams and Anne Matzner.

A graveside service will be held today at 1:30 p.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, 1469 Post Rd., Warwick.
