

ABRAMS,
Philip

Narragansett
27-B 1-31-1998

PHILIP A. ABRAMS, 74, of Clearwater, Fla., and Brown Street, Narragansett, owner of the former Abrams Meat Market on Broad Street, Providence, and Warwick Avenue, Warwick, for many years before retiring, died Thursday at home in Clearwater. He was the husband of Gloria Abrams.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Arnold and Rose (Silverman) Abrams, he lived in Dean Estates, Providence, before moving to Narragansett. He also lived in Pompano Beach, Fla., and in Clearwater.

Mr. Abrams was a Navy veteran of World War II, and served aboard the USS Louisville in the South Pacific Theater. He was a member of the Hebrew Free Loan Society. He was a member of Congregation Beth Shalom in Clearwater, and Congregation Beth David in Narragansett.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Francine Vinacco of Warwick, and Karen Abrams of Cranston; a stepdaughter, Lisa Brennan of St. Petersburg, Fla.; a brother, David Abrams of Providence; a sister, Anne Matzner of Cranston; and three grandchildren. He was a brother of the late Irving Abrams.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 11:45 a.m. in Clearwater. Shiva will be tomorrow and Monday at 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. at the home of Francine Vinacco, 158 Almy St., Warwick.
