LEO ANDELMAN

Funeral services for Leo Andelman of 61 Dartmouth Street, Pawtucket, who died Monday after a six-month illness, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The husband of Mary (Lubin) Andelman, he was born April 3, 1908, in Chelsea, Mass., a son of the late Charles and Sarah (Levy) Andelman. He was a Providence resident before moving to Pawtucket last year. He received his bachelor of arts degree from Boston University in 1929, and was a certified public accountant.

He was a lieutenant colonel with the Army in World War II. He was a member of Temple Emanu-El and its Men's Club, Roosevelt Lodge, F & AM, the Providence Fraternal Association, the Rhode Island Association of Public Accountants and the Pawtucket YMCA.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. William Lewis of Cranston and Mrs. Robert Halpern of Providence; three sisters, Mrs. Harry Bloomberg and Mrs. Harry Richman, both of Providence, and Miss Bess Andelman of Cornwall-on-the-Hudson, N.Y.; two brothers, Murray M. Andelman of Orlando, Fla., and David Andelman of Newbury, N.Y., and five grandchildren.
