

Gerald S. Arbor

Former owner of Copy Products in E. Providence, Mason, veteran

BOCA RATON, Fl. — Gerald S. Arbor, 65, of 9223 Pecky Cypress Lane, owner and president Copy Products Inc. in East Providence for 22 years before retiring in 1981, died yesterday at 539 East Ave., Pawtucket. He was the husband of Shirley (Schuster) Arbor.

Born in Providence, he was the son of Nathan and Rachel (Charcusk) Arbor. He lived in Boca Raton 12 years and previously had lived in Pawtucket for 40 years.

Mr. Arborn was a member of the Crestwood Country Club, the Overseas Lodge of the Masons, Temple Emanu-El and its Mens Club, Temple Beth-David of Narragansett and Boca Lago Country Club. He was an Army Air Forces veteran of World War II.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Paul Arbor of Warwick and Neil Arbor of East Greenwich; a sister, Matilda Whalen of Narragansett; and four grandchildren.

The funeral will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. from Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

ARBOR, Gerald S.

September 15, 1991. Residence 9223 Pecky Cypress Lane, Boca Raton, FL and 539 East Ave., Pawtucket. Beloved husband of Shirley (Schuster) Arbor. Devoted father of Paul Arbor of Warwick and Neil Arbor of East Greenwich. Dear brother of Matilda Whalen of Narragansett. Loving grandfather of Mitchell, Eric, Ashley and Austin. Funeral services Tuesday 11 a.m. at the SUGARMAN-MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope Street, (corner of Doyle Ave.) In lieu of flowers contributions in his memory may be made to the American Heart Association. Shiva will not be observed due to the High Holidays. Michael D. Smith, Associate.

ARBOR,
Gerald S.