Abraham I. Aron

A past president of Temple Beth-Am; received awards for scout leadership
WARWICK — Abraham I. Aron, 57, of 253 Fairfax Dr., died today at the Miriam Hospital after an illness of five weeks. He was the husband of Bella (Silver) Aron.

He had been associated with the Sterling Shoe Store in the Governor Francis Shopping Center for eight years. Previously, he was the owner and operator of S. Aron & Son kosher meats, on Douglas Avenue, Providence, for 20 years.

He was a past president of Temple Beth-Am, and a member of its Board of Directors; a director of Temple Beth David-Anshnikovni, and a director of the Rhode Island Jewish Federation. He was president of the Waad Hacashruth of Providence; commissioner of the West Shore District of the Boy Scouts of America; chairman of the Committee on Jewish Scouting, and the Narragansett Council; a recipient of two honors given by the Boy Scouts of America — the Commissioner's Arrowhead Award and the George Bucklin Award. In 1976, he was honored by the Bonds of Israel Committee, and was a member of the Jewish War Veterans.

An Army veteran of World War II, he was born in Providence Nov. 13, 1921, a son of the late Samuel and Bessie (Casper) Aron, and had been a life-long resident of Providence until he moved to Warwick 25 years ago.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Richard A. Aron and Jay B. Aron, both of Warwick; a daughter, Mrs. Ronna A. Schaffer of Acton, Mass.; two brothers, Jack Aron of Milton, Mass., and Sy Aron of Warwick; two sisters, Mrs. Ethel Silverman of East Greenwich, and Mrs. Evelyn Wasser of Cranston, and four grandchildren.

The funeral will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Temple Beth-Am, 40 Gardiner Ave. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Aron, Abraham I.
