

Jerome Aron

CRANSTON — Jerome Aron, 57, of 106 Rutland St., who was associated for more than 20 years with the Ardon Print Co., Providence, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital.

Born in Providence, a son of the late William and Blanche (Abrams) Aron, he lived in Cranston for 10 years.

Mr. Aron was a graduate of Providence College. He was a member of the board of directors of Temple Am David, Warwick, and chairman of its Long Range Planning Committee.

For many years, he was a leader in the Boy Scouts of American, and a member of the Jewish Committee on Boy Scouting. He was involved with scouting at Camp Yawgoog, Rockville, and was in charge of its Jewish Chapel. He was the recipient of many distinguished service Jewish awards from the Boy Scouts of America, including the Silver Beaver Award, the Shofar Award, the District Award of Merit, and the St. George's Award. He was the Boy Scout's charter organizing representative for Pack and Troop 10 at Temple Am David.

He leaves three brothers, Edward and Samuel Aron, both of Cranston, Donald Aron in Florida, and a sister, Beatrice Mossberg of Cranston. He was brother of the late Sylvia Aron.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Temple Am David, Gardner Street. Burial will be in Lincoln Park, Warwick.
