

Walter Axelrod, 68;
Weybosset St. store
mecca for musicians

PROVIDENCE — Walter Axelrod, 68, of 9 Ternay Garden, Yorktown Village, for many years a co-owner with his brother of Axelrod-Music, Inc. on Weybosset Street, died today at home. He was the husband of the late Bernice (Ganser) Axelrod.

Axelrod-Music Inc., which has been in the family for about 75 years, has for decades been one of the few full-line music stores in New England, catering to music students as well as professional musicians. Mr. Axelrod also owned Providence Music Press, which published the works of local composers.

A lifelong Providence resident, Mr. Axelrod was the son of the late Abraham and Rose (Bernstein) Axelrod.

He was a 1940 graduate of Brown University. Mr. Axelrod was an Army veteran of World War II.

He was an honorary director of the board of the Rhode Island Philharmonic Orchestra, a member of the board of the Boy Scouts of America, and a member of the Turks Head and the Exchange Clubs.

He is survived by a son, Alan Axelrod of Providence; a daughter, Sandra Cabral of Cranston; a brother, Paul Axelrod, and two sisters, Belle Stern and Evelyn Axelrod, all of Florida.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

Feb 7-28-76

AXELROD,

WALTER

✓