

~~PJ 7-10-2002~~
Providence

HERBERT H. BANDER, 76, of Fern Park, Fla., and formerly of Providence, a retired chemist, died June 27 at home.

He was the husband of Ramola (Dimond) Bander. Born in Providence, a son of the late Maurice and Ada Bander, he had lived in Providence before moving to Florida, and previously had lived in Paramus, N.J., for many years.

A graduate of the University of Rhode Island, he was a member of the AEPI fraternity.

Mr. Bander had been a chemist, working in technical sales, for many years before retiring.

He was a past president of the Paramus Jewish Community Center and the Paramus Little League, which he had helped to form.

A past member of the Recreation Commission, he had served as its chairman for seven years.

Mr. Bander also was a musician. He had played in the Brevard Community Band, in Coco, Fla., and in the Maitland Orchestra, in Maitland, Fla.

Besides his wife, he leaves, a daughter, Mindy Bander-Habib of Winter Springs, Fla.; three sons, Peter Bander of Fern Park, Ephraim Bander of Maitland and Michal Bander of Boca Raton, Fla.; and seven grandchildren.

A graveside service was held at Ohev Shalom Cemetery, in Orlando, Fla.

BANDER,
HERBERT
H.