BARNEY B. BARLES, 79, of Parkview Drive, a retired automobile salesman, died yesterday at home.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Joseph and Teresa (Fishman) Barles, he had lived in Cumberland before moving to Pawtucket 25 years ago. Mr. Barles had sold over 10,000 vehicles while working at the Cerrone family dealerships for 42 years, retiring 9 years ago.

A Navy veteran of World War II, he served as a pharmacist's mate in Europe, and participated in the Normandy invasion. He was a member of the American Legion and the DAV.

He was an avid reader.

He leaves four daughters, Rhonda McVey of Cumberland, Brenda Gates of Cranston, and Teresa DaSilva and Tamra Barles, both of Pawtucket; a brother, Harry Barles of Clearwater, Fla.; and four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Ida Maibor and Ann Tedlow.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
