ARTHUR B. BARROW, 53, of Old Beaver Brook, Acton, Mass., a computer architect, died yesterday at the Lahey Clinic, Burlington, Mass.

He was the husband of Leslie (Greenfield) Barrow. Born in the Bronx, N.Y., a son of Evelyn (Jacobs) Barrow of Albany, N.Y., and the late David Barrow, he had lived in New York before moving to Massachusetts at the age of 18.

Mr. Barrow was a 1970 honors graduate of MIT with a major in math and English. He was a computer architect at Converse Technology in Andover, Mass., and had formerly worked at Wang Laboratories in Lowell, Mass., where he held two patents for his work.

Besides his wife and mother, he leaves a son, Stacy H. Barrow of Acton; a sister, Judith Thorpe of Albany; and a niece.

The funeral will be held Sunday at 10 a.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
