

PSY 10-20-1996
FRED BARRY, 81, of 30 Village

Drive, founder and owner of the former Berry Leather Goods Co., Pawtucket, for many years and the founder and owner of Barry Importing Ltd. for many years, retiring in 1991, died yesterday at home. He was the husband of Dorothy (Lippman) Barry.

Born in Brooklyn, a son of the late Jack and Gertrude (Ritter) Barry, he lived in East Providence for six years, previously living in Providence since 1935.

Mr. Barry attended Brown University. He was an Army veteran of World War II. He was a member of Temple Emanu-El of Providence and Roosevelt Lodge 42 F&AM.

He traveled throughout Europe, East Asia and China, and at 65 started teaching international trade at Providence College for two years. He had been a volunteer teacher of civics to Russian immigrants in the Providence area. He taught at Brown Community of Learning in Retirement and was a leader of Current Events Discussion Group at Hamilton House, Providence.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Philip Barry of Evanston, Ill., and John Barry of Washington, D.C.; a sister, Ruth Kahn of Providence; and a grandson.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

BARRY,
Fred

 BARRY, Fred

October 19, 1996. Beloved husband of Dorothy (Lippman) Barry. Residence: 30 Village Dr., East Providence. Dear father of Philip Barry, Evanston, IL and John Barry, Washington, DC. Dear brother of Ruth Kahn, Providence. Devoted grandfather of Eric. Loving father-in-law of Roberta and Anne. Funeral Service 11 a.m. Monday at MOUNT SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 825 Hope at 4th Sts. Relatives and friends are invited. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Hospice of Nursing Placement, 339 Angell St. Memorial Observance at his late residence Mon. 7-9 p.m. and Tues.-Weds. 2-4; 7-9 p.m.