Deborah (Feldstein) Bartfeld, 28, dies after battle with cancer

DEBORAH BARTFELD, 28, of Taber Avenue, a clinical social worker, died April 17 at home after a year-long battle with leukemia.

She was the wife of Alexander R. Bartfeld. Born in Providence, a daughter of Edward D. and Barbara (Levine) Feldstein, she had lived in Providence and the Boston area all her life.

Mrs. Bartfeld was a clinical social worker at Massasoit School, Braintree, Mass.

She was in the second graduating class of the Solomon Schechter Day School (now the Alperin Schechter Day School) in Providence. She was a 1997 graduate of Lesley College, Cambridge, Mass., and received her master's degree in social work from Boston University in 1999.

She was a former member of Temple Emanu-El.

Besides her husband and parents, she leaves a sister, Pamela Feldstein Loewenberg of Stamford, Conn., and her paternal grandfather, Harry Feldstein of Providence.

The funeral was held at Temple Emanu-El in Providence on April 20.

Burial was private. Shiva will be held on Friday, April 25th at her late residence in Massachusetts from 1-4 p.m. Contributions may be made to the Deborah Feldstein Bartfeld Memorial Fund at the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island, 130 Sessions Street, Providence, RI 02906.
