MORRIS BAZARSKY, 92, of 54 Barker Ave., owner of the former United States Beef Co., died yesterday at Grace Barker Nursing Center.

He was the husband of the late Shirley (Fields) Bazarsky. Born in Russia, a son of the late Rubin and Rose (Vediborsky) Bazarsky, he came into this country through Ellis Island, N.Y., in 1920, settling in Providence, and had lived in Cranston and Bradenton, Fla., before moving to Warren in 1991.

Mr. Bazarsky was the founder of United States Beef, operating it for 16 years before retiring in 1963.

He was a former member of the YMCA Businessman's Association, a member of the former Temple Beth Israel, and a former member of Temple Torat Yisrael. He was an air-raid warden during World War II.

He leaves three sons, Brenton Bazarsky of Seekonk, Marshall Bazarsky of Swansea and Stuart Bazarsky of Phoenix, Ariz.; a sister, Annette Preblud of Cranston; a brother, Max Bazarsky of Houston; and 6 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Sam Bazarsky, Jeanne Kotler, Etta Nysko, Mary Meadow and Bertha Kasper.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Sharon (Mass.) Memorial Park.
