MAURICE P. BECK, 84, of Emerald Lake Drive, East Lansing, Mich., and formerly of Sessions Street, Providence, a former executive director of the Michigan League for Human Services, died March 11 at the Ingham County Medical Care Facility, Okemos, Mich.

He was the husband of Eunice H. Beck. Born in Providence, a son of the late Harry and Elizabeth (Temkin) Beck, he had lived in Providence and in Pennsylvania before moving to Michigan.

He was a graduate of Brown University.

Mr. Beck had served as executive director of the Michigan League for Human Services until he retired in 1985.

Named by Gov. William Milliken to the Department of Social Services Advisory Council, he had served on the panel until 1981. He also had worked for the United Way of Michigan, and as a field secretary with the Bureau of Community Council Health and Welfare Association of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mr. Beck was a past president of the Michigan Society of Gerontology and an active member of the Kiwanis Club in Michigan.

An Army veteran of World War II, he served in Europe with the 87th Infantry Division, and was a participant in the Battle of the Bulge.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Karen Skold of Mountain View, Calif., and Natasha Beck of Portland, Ore.; a brother, Dr. Aaron T. Beck of Philadelphia; three grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews. He was a brother of the late Dr. Irving A. Beck.

The memorial service will be on March 30 at 2 p.m. in the Unitarian Universalist Church in East Lansing.
