OBITUARIES

Stephen M. Beck

BRIGHTON, Mass. — Stephen M. Beck, 33, of 10 Claymoss St., a management consultant, died yesterday at St. Elizabeth's Hospital shortly after being injured in an auto accident. He was the husband of Nancy (Weiner) Beck.

He was born in Providence, a son of Dr. Irving A. and Edith E. (Woodhead) Beck and had been a Brighton resident for the last six years.

Mr. Beck was a graduate of Lake Forest College, Lake Forest, Ill., in 1968, a member of the Peace Corps from 1968 to 1969, and received his master of arts degree in sociology in 1971 at Boston University.

He was a social worker with the R.I. Department of Social Welfare from 1971 to 1976 and a management consultant with the Sterling Institute of Washington, D.C., from 1976 to 1979.

Besides his wife and parents of East Providence, he leaves three sisters, Louise G. Beck of Somerville, Mrs. Ruth A. Bakshi of Newton and Mrs. Barbara D. Bahn of Watertown.

The funeral was to be held today at 11 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
