

BELILOVE,
Saul

SAUL BELILOVE, 77, of 156 Tunnel Road, Berkeley, Calif., founder in 1947 of the Belilove Co. — Engineers, a manufacturer's representative business in East Bay, Calif., until his retirement in 1987, died Saturday at home. He was the husband of Jean (Pastor) Belilove.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late David and Lena Belilove. He moved to Berkeley in 1952.

A Hope High School graduate, he was a 1940 graduate of Brown University. He earned a master's degree in electrical and mechanical engineering from Penn State University in 1941 and a J.D. from the Golden Gate University School of Law, in 1957. He was a member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

He was an active member of the Berkeley Tennis Club and sponsored its annual "Belilove Cup Award." He served on the board of directors of the Oakland Ballet Company from 1989 to present.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, James Richard Belilove of Fairfield, Iowa; a daughter, Lori Louise Belilove of New York City; a twin brother, Abraham Belilove, of Providence; a sister, Esther Spector of Laguna Hills Calif., and two grandchildren.

A memorial gathering will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. at his home.
