

MAX BELL

CANTON, Mass. — Max Bell, 92, of Meadowbrook Way, Foxboro, died Aug. 10 at the Meadowbrook Nursing Home, Canton, Mass. He was the husband of the late Anna (Kaufman) Bell.

Born in Cambridge, Mass., a son of the late Samuel and Etta (Chauner) Bell, he lived in Salem, Mass., for 25 years before moving to Foxboro.

He worked for the Boston Mutual Insurance Co. as a supervisor of the North Shore until retiring at age 65. He previously owned Bobby's Shoe Stores, Boston, for 15 years.

He was treasurer for life and a former president of Temple Shalom, Salem. He was a member of the Temple Lodge of Masons, Boston. Many years ago he was appointed by Judge Samuel Zoll to the Salem Council on Aging.

He leaves a son, Robert F. Bell of Cranston; two daughters, Phyllis Shaker of Sharon, Mass., and Janet C. Bell of Waltham, Mass.; two sisters, Sarah Rossen of Lynn, Mass., and Anna Gesmer of Newton, Mass.; four grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren. He was brother of the late Hyman and Joseph Bell and Dora Mossesohn.

The funeral was held Aug. 12 at Temple Sinai, Ames Street, Sharon. Burial was in Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon.

RIHER 7-18-94 ✓

BELL,
max