

PJ-B 5-18-1995

BELLIN,
Marcia
Sema

MARCIA SEMA BELLIN, 65, of Nahanton Street, Newton, Mass., died April 28 at The Carney Hospital in Dorchester, Mass. She was the wife of Dr. Albert I. Bellin.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Israel and Rebecca (Blumenthal) Rosenberg, she had also lived in Swampscott, Mass., and Lynn, Mass., for the past 33 years.

Mrs. Bellin was a 1950 graduate of the former Pembroke College, now Brown University, and taught in the Pawtucket school system. She was a member of Congregation Ahabat Shalom, and Temple Israel, and its Sisterhood. She had been a member of Temple Emeth in Chestnut Hill, Mass. She was a member of Congregation Beth El-Atereth Israel and its Sisterhood in Newton. She had been a member of AMIT, the Women's American ORT, Hadassah, the Providence Hebrew Day School, the American Diabetic Association and the Kidney Transplant/Dialysis Association.

Besides her husband she leaves two sons, Dr. Stevin Bellin and Dr. Jeffrey Bellin, both of Newton; a brother, Howard Rosenberg of Pawtucket; and four grandchildren.

The funeral was in Massachusetts.

Marcia R. Bellin

Marcia Sema (Rosenberg) Bellin of Newton Centre died at Carney Hospital in Dorchester April 28. She was 65.

Born in Providence, she was the daughter of the late Israel and Rebecca (Blumenthal) Rosenberg. She attended Pawtucket West High High School and graduated from Pembroke College of Brown University in 1950. Prior to her marriage, she taught in the Pawtucket school system.

Mrs. Bellin lived in Lynn and Swampscott for 33 years. She was a member of Congregation Ahabat Shalom and Temple Israel, where she was active in the sisterhood. Mrs. Bellin moved to Newton in 1987, where she was a member of Temple Emeth in Chestnut Hill and Congregation Beth El-Atereth Israel.

She was a member of AMIT, Women's American ORT, Hadassah, Providence Hebrew Day School, American Diabetes Association and the Kidney Transplant/Dialysis Association.

Mrs. Bellin is survived by her husband, Dr. Albert I. Bellin; her children, Dr. Steven and Renee Bellin and Dr. Jeffrey and Lisa Bellin; her grandchildren, Joshua, Ari, Daniel and Deborah; and her brother, Howard Rosenberg.

Boston
Advocate
5-19-95