Dr. B.H. Benjamin; physician, concert violinist, at 82

WARWICK — Dr. Barnard H. Benjamin, 82, of 1 Shalom Drive, a physician in the Attleboros for many years and an accomplished musician, died yesterday at Kent County Memorial Hospital. He was the husband of Sarah (Ribock) Benjamin.

Dr. Benjamin, who specialized in proctology, formerly was on the staff of Sturdy Memorial Hospital, Attleboro. He conducted a private practice in South Attleboro for 50 years before retiring.

A concert violinist, he had performed with the orchestras of Paul Whiteman, Art Rubin and Jack Grenard in the Boston area.

Dr. Benjamin was a member of Congregation Agudas Achim and its Men's Club in Attleboro; Temple Torat-Yisrael, Cranston, the American Medical Association, the Massachusetts Medical Society, Zekiel Bates Lodge of Masons, the Palestine Shrine, and the Zionist Organization of America.

Born in Russia, he was a son of the late Louis and Julia (Webber) Benjamin. He lived in South Attleboro until 1980.

Besides his wife, Dr. Benjamin leaves two daughters, Maxine Torman of Warwick and Julia Holz of Manila, the Philippines; a brother, Dr. Henry Benjamin of Miami, Fla.; a sister, Betty Isenman of Boca Raton, Fla.; eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Hebrew Volin Cemetery, West Roxbury, Mass.

BENJAMIN, B.H.
