Maurice Bennett

Miami Beach Hotel Operator,
Woonsocket Native, Dies

Maurice Bennett, 55, a hotel operator at Miami Beach, Fla., and a brother of Herman L. Bennett, president of the Bennett Chevrolet Co. here, died suddenly on Monday at Miami Beach.

He was born in Woonsocket July 31, 1897, a son of John and Anna Bennett, and was educated in the schools there and at Webster, Mass., where his first work after finishing school was in a department store. He became an interior decorator in Portland, Me., and 10 years ago went into the hotel business in Florida.

He was a 32nd degree Mason and was interested in philanthropic activities in Florida.

Mr. Bennett is survived by his mother, now a resident of Brookline, Mass.; his wife, Sadie (Greenberg) Bennett; two daughters, Mrs. Norton Goldstein and Mrs. David Shore of Needham, Mass.; another brother, Dr. Theodore B. Bennett of Brookline; four sisters, Mrs. Victor E. Livingstone of Providence, Mrs. Harry Cline of Brookline, Mrs. Maurice E. Winer of Lynn, Mass., and Mrs. Samuel Staman of Worcester, and three grandchildren.
