Irving Beranbaum

President 30 years of the former Morris Clothes Co., active Mason

CRANSTON — Irving Beranbaum, 63, of 65 Meshanticut Valley Parkway, president of the former Morris Clothes Co., Providence, died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital shortly after being admitted. He was the husband of Marjorie (Seder) Beranbaum. His first wife, Sylvia (Uloff) Beranbaum, died in 1966.

He was president of Morris Clothes Company, Providence, for more than 30 years. He was a member of Temple Emanu-El, Providence; Temple Torat Yisrael and Temple Beth David, Narragansett; a member of the Touro Fraternal Association; a past president of the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association; a member of the Roger Williams Chapter of B'nai B'rith; Redwood Lodge 35 A.F. & A.M. and the Scottish Rites. A Shriner, he was a member of the Knights of Pythias; the Trowel Club; the Aurora Civic Association and the R.I. Police Chiefs Association.

He was a graduate of Providence College, class of 1942 and in 1979 was the recipient of the McDonald Award of the college and chairman of the Loyalty Fund of P.C. He was a Navy veteran of World War II.

Born in Providence, he was a son of Morris and Lillian (Levine) Beranbaum. He had lived in Providence most of his life until moving to Cranston 15 years ago.

Besides his wife and parents he leaves a son, Stephen Beranbaum of Cranston; a daughter, Mrs. Judith Bernstein of Tustin, Calif.; three stepdaughters, Mrs. Joan Vigliotti and Miss Susan Leveye, both of Cranston and Miss Linda Leveye of Hollywood, Fla.; a brother, Nathan Beranbaum of Providence; and six grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
