SAMUEL BERDITCH

Funeral services for Samuel Berditch, 65, of 89 Whitewood Drive, Cranston, who died Sunday, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. He was President of the S. Berditch Company and cantor of Temple Beth Am, Warwick, and was the husband of Fay (Litchman) Berditch.

Mr. Berditch was born in Russia, a son of the late Hyman and Bella (Kolodney) Berditch. He had lived in Providence for 44 years before moving to Cranston in 1958.

He had operated his own retail drygoods company for many years and was still active in the business at the time of his death.

Besides his service at Temple Beth Am, he also had been cantor of the Jewish Community Center in Cranston, Congregation Agudath Achim in Taunton and Temple Israel in Portsmouth, N.H.

He was also a member of the board of directors of Temple Beth Am, and a member of the Touro Fraternal Association, the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Knights of Pythias, the Hebrew Free Loan Association and the Olneyville Hebrew Club.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two brothers, Solomon and Benjamin Berditch, both of Providence, and a sister, Mrs. Max Fishman of Pawtucket.
