

BERKLEY - STRAUSS, JUSTIN MICHAEL

PSB 6-5-11

PROVIDENCE

BERKLEY-STAUS,
JustinMichael, 22, died May, 30, 2011. Born in Corvallis, Oregon, he was a son of Dr. John Straus and Dr. Mara Berkley.

Justin attended Montessori Children's House and Gordon School.
He graduated with honors from Providence Country Day where he was a member of the tennis team and chess club. He was accepted to five colleges with scholarships, but chose to attend Bard College.
He majored in neuroscience and planned to do his graduate studies in neuropharmacology.

His passions were reading, chess, Magic Cards, ceramics, electronic music, and a good debate. Above all, he was a thinker and philosopher who defied the limits of the cosmos. There were no bounds to his love for his friends and family.

Besides his parents, he is survived by his brother, Noah AnStraus; and his grandparents, Murray Straus and Estelle Nagler.
He was the grandson of the late Martin Berkley and Jacqueline Straus.

A graveside service will be held TODAY, June 5th at 3:00 PM in Dodgeville Hebrew Cemetery in Attleboro, MA. Friends are invited to bring a pebble to place in the grave. Shiva will be observed at his late residence, 78 Oriole Ave., Providence on Sun 7-9 and Mon & Tues from sunrise to sunset.
Arrangements by SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL.
