

Saul Berman

BAL HARBOUR, Fla. — Saul Berman, 80, co-owner with his late brother of the former Trading Post in West Warwick and the former Food Fair in Newport before moving to Florida, died Saturday at home. He was the husband of Elizabeth P. (Polya) Berman.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Benjamin and Annie (Brady) Berman. He moved to Florida 35 years ago.

Mr. Berman was a meat retailer in West Warwick and Newport while living in Rhode Island, and retired after 60 years in the food industry. His wholesale beef companies in Florida included the Arrow Beef Corp., Universal Meats and the Sunshine State Foods.

He was a founder of Mount Sinai Hospital, Miami; a patron of the Miami Heart Institute, and a member of the Jewish Federation. He was a 32nd-degree Mason and a member of the A&A Scottish Rites Temple.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Eugene B. Berman of San Francisco; a daughter, Bonnie S. Berman of Bal Harbour; a sister, Bessie Hood of Providence, and a grandson.

The funeral and burial were held Monday in Miami. PJB 6-20-90 ✓

BERMAN, SAUL