Ronni Lynn Bermudez

Warwick — Ronni Lynn Bermudez, 43, of 20 Orrin Street, a substance abuse counselor, died Friday, Sept. 5, at home after a long fight with cancer. She was the companion of Ben Henderson of Warwick.

Born in Cranston, a daughter of Elayne I. (Rosenberg) Kessler of Cranston and the late Dr. Berton J. Kessler, she was a lifelong Rhode Island resident, living in Warwick for the past 13 years.

She was a substance abuse counselor for several agencies in the Rhode Island area for 10 years. She received an associate's degree in Social Work from CCRI. She was a graduate candidate of Cambridge College in Mass. Besides her mother and companion, she leaves three sons, Joshua and Ryan Kent and Alexander Bermudez, all of Warwick; a daughter, Sarina Bermudez of Warwick; two brothers, Mitchell D. Kessler of Charlestown and Scott L. Kessler of Providence and two sisters, Sherri A. Quaglieri and Christine Brown, both of Cranston.

She was buried in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick. Contributions in her memory may be made to the Oncology Department for the pancreatic cancer research program at the Miriam Hospital.
