

BERNSTEIN,
Jack

PJ-3 8-8-1996
JACK BERNSTEIN of 163 Waterman St., a tax collector at Providence City Hall for many years before retiring, died Thursday at Roger Williams Medical Center.

Born in Austria, a son of the late Samuel and Anna (Chotkis) Bernstein, he lived in Providence most of his life. He worked in New York several years before returning to Providence many years ago. A Journal-Bulletin article recounted his relationship with taxpayers lined up to pay their annual taxes. Remembering his friendly manner with fellow taxpayers, people preferred lining up to deal with him. Mr. Bernstein had a favorite expression, "See you on the next trip," — meaning he hoped they would be well so they could see each other again.

Mr. Bernstein was an Army veteran of World War II and an alumnus of Brown University. He participated in fund-raising work for Brown, and he gave generously to charitable and educational groups and causes. He was a member of the Rhode Island Jewish Fraternal Association. He was a member of the Congregation Sons of Jacob.

He leaves two sisters, Jeanette Bernstein and Pauline Penn, and a brother, Milton Sparrer, all of Providence. He was a brother of the late Sidney Spehrer.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick. ✓

 BERNSTEIN, Jack

July 4, 1996. Residence: 163 Waterman St., Providence. A son of the late Samuel and Anna (Chotkis) Bernstein. Dear brother of Jeanette Bernstein, Pauline Penn and Milton Sparrer. He was also the brother of the late Sidney Spehrer. He also leaves two nephews and numerous cousins. Graveside services to be held Sunday at 10AM at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to your favorite charity. Shiva will be private. The family was assisted in the arrangements by MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St. (corner Doyle Ave.), Providence, RI.