Max Bernstein

NEEDHAM, Mass. — Max Bernstein, 83, of 1202 Greendale Ave., and DelRay Beach, Fla., president of the Bugbee and Niles Co., Providence, and former owner of Leonardo DaVinci Creations, died Tuesday at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital. He was the husband of the late Muriel Nesta (Brown) Bernstein.

Born in Lynn, he was a son of the late Jacob and Rose Bernstein.

Mr. Bernstein participated in many of the Boston walking races, a sport that was popular during the 1920s. In 1950, he began his career in jewelry as a salesman for the Bugbee and Niles Co. He later became sales manager and owned the company in 1976.

He endowed numerous scholarships to the West End House Boys and Girl Club in Allston, and established the Bernstein Camp Fund at the West End House Camp in Maine.

Mr. Bernstein served on the board of directors of the West End House and was a member of the Everett C. Benton Lodge AF & AM, and the Manufacturing Jewelers and Silversmiths Association.

He leaves four sons, David P. Bernstein of West Lake Village, Calif., Barry E. Bernstein of East Greenwich, Robert S. Bernstein of Esmond, Gerald P. Bernstein of Malibu, Calif., and two grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held at the Brezniak Rodman Chapel, 151 Washington St., West Newton, Mass., today at 11 a.m. Burial will be in Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon.
