BERNSTEIN,
MORRIS

4-14-2002

MORRIS J. BERNSTEIN, 80, of 77 Dixwell Ave., the owner of Warwick Stamp and Coins Inc., died yesterday at Miriam Hospital, Providence.

He was the husband of Ida (Lerner) Bernstein. Born in Russia, the son of the late Meyer and Sonya (Perlmutter) Bernstein, he had lived in Cranston for 51 years.

Mr. Bernstein had owned and operated his stamp and coin shop in Warwick for more than 40 years. He was a member of the American and Rhode Island Philatelic Societies and the American Numismatic Society.

A Navy veteran of World War II, he served in the Pacific.

Mr. Bernstein was a member of the Touro Fraternal Association. He was a former member of Temple

Torat Yisrael and the former Rhode Island Jewish Bowling Congress.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, David and Myron Ray Bernstein, both of Cranston; a daughter, Betsy Brody of Atlanta, Ga.; and three grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Gertrude "Babe" Smith.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. in the Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
