ROSE A. (LIPSKY) BERNSTEIN, 97, of 115 Eighth St., died yesterday at Philip Hulitar Hospice Center.

She was the wife of the late Joseph Bernstein. They were married for 57 years. Born in Fall River, a daughter of the late Abraham and Jennie (Gourse) Lipsky, she had lived in Fall River for 18 years before moving to Providence in 1922, when she was married.

Mrs. Bernstein was a Grey Lady at Rhode Island Hospital during World War II.

She was a member of Congregation Mishkon Tfiloh, and a life member of the Jewish Community Center Golden Agers Club and the former Jewish Home for Aged.

She leaves two sons, Stanley Bernstein of Melbourne, Fla., and Allan Brent of Providence, two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. She was the sister of eight late brothers and sisters.

The funeral will be held Sunday at 11 a.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

BERNSTEIN,
Rose A.
