ALVIN N. BIENER, 71, of Blaisdell Avenue, an attorney, died yesterday at Philip Hulitar Hosce Center, Providence.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., a son of the late Irving and Mollie (Nirenberg) Biener, he had been a resident of Rhode Island since 1956.

He was a partner in the former Abedon, Michaelson, Stanzier & Biener for 25 years, and had been in private practice since 1988. He was a member of the Rhode Island and the American Bar Associations.

Mr. Biener received a bachelor's degree from Brooklyn College, a doctorate from Harvard Law School, and a master's degree in taxation from Boston University.

He was an Army veteran of the Korean War, and a member of the Paralyzed Veterans of America.

Mr. Biener was a life member of Mishkon Tefillah and a Mason. He was a benefactor of Children's Town Orphanage, Jerusalem, and a building there was named in his honor.

He leaves four daughters, Susan Bergman and Shelley Derby, both of Newton, Mass., Lisa Jacobs of Short Hills, N.J., and Ellen Knasin of Cranston, and eight grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held today at 10 a.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in New Montefiore Cemetery, Farmingdale, N.Y.
