

Providence

VIOLA BIRNBAUM, 86, of 97 Dexterdale Rd., a manager for the Pawtucket Dress Co. for 25 years, retiring in 1985, died Thursday at Miriam Hospital, Providence.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., a daughter of the late Joseph and Irene (Stern) Schlesinger, she had lived in Providence since 1961.

She leaves two sons, Joel Birnbaum of Oceanport, N.J., and Jay Birnbaum of Providence; a daughter, Sandy Silverstein in Long Island, N.Y.; a sister, Rosalind Novsam of Bridgeport, Conn.; and five grandchildren.

A graveside funeral service was held Sunday at Beth-El Cemetery in Paramus, N.J.

BIRNBAUM, Viola (Schlesinger)

April 24, 1997. Residence 97 Dexterdale Rd., Providence RI. Devoted Mother of Joel Birnbaum of Oceanport, NJ, Jay Birnbaum of Providence, and Sandy Silverstein of Long Island, NY. Dear Sister of Rosalind Novsam of Bridgeport, CT. Loving Grandmother of five Grandchildren. Graveside services will be held Sunday at Beth-El Cemetery, Paramus, NJ. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the RI School for the Deaf, C/O Helen Novsam, 1 Corliss Park, Providence RI 02904. Shiva will be private. Arrangements by the MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope Street (corner of Doyle Ave.) Providence.

PJB 4-25-97 ✓

BIRNBAUM,
Viola