Harry Blacher, 90; founded jewelry firm

PROVIDENCE — Harry Blacher, 90, of the Regency, 60 Broadway, founder of Blacher Brothers Inc. in 1907, and chairman of the board of the jewelry manufacturing firm until retiring in 1978, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of the late Bertha (Adler) Blacher.

Mr. Blacher was a past board member and honorary life trustee of Temple Emanu-El, and a member of its Men's Club; the Jewish Home for the Aged, the B'nai B'rith and the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island. He was an honorary trustee of Miriam Hospital and a founder and charter member of the Ledgemont Country Club.

Born in Russia, a son of the late David and Lena Blacher, he came to Providence in the early 1900s.

He leaves a son, Stanley Blacher of Providence; four brothers, Joseph Blacher of Boston, Benjamin Blacher of Providence, Louis Blacher of New York City and Samuel Blacher of Greenwich, Conn.; sister, Mrs. Fannie Finklestein of Providence, and four grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

BLACHER,
HARRY
