

WARWICK

BLANCK, Carole Mae (Weinstein)

age 85, of Warwick, passed away on Friday, October 22, 2021 at Hope Health Hular Hospice Center in Providence. She was wife of the late Semon Blanck, who was, until the day she died, the love of her life. Born in Bronx, New York, she was the daughter of the late Matthew and Sidonia (Rapp) Weinstein. Carole enjoyed golfing, boating, traveling and was very proud of achieving her Bachelor's Degree through the Continuing Education for Women program at the University of Rhode Island in 1973. Carole went on to achieve professionally, and to help others, in her work with nonprofit community organizations throughout the state. Survivors include: three children, Cheryl Blanck of East Greenwich, Susan Wilson and her husband Douglas of Warwick and Michael Blanck and his wife Lisa of Rehoboth; four grandchildren, Nathaniel and Jeremiah Wilson, Allison and Aaron Blanck and one brother, Barry Weinstein and his wife Grace. She was also devoted to her cat, Sami and will be missed by so many others who were touched by her life. If you would like to honor her memory, a donation to the Animal Rescue League of Boston <https://www.arlboston.org/> or WAGS Pet Adoption <https://wagspetadoption.org/> would be a fitting tribute. Relatives and friends are invited to Her Graveside Service on Tuesday, October 26, 2021 at 11:00 am in Lincoln Park Cemetery, 1469 Post Road, Warwick, RI. A luncheon of fellowship and to celebrate Carole's life will follow. Arrangements are in the care of Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, Providence. www.sugarmansinai.com

