IRVING BLAZER, 77, of Doyle Avenue, a retired master plumber and business owner, died Wednesday at home.

He was the husband of the late Rosaline (Wine) Blazer. Born in Providence, a son of the late Simon and Sarah (Frayman) Blazer, he had been a lifelong resident of the city.

A Navy veteran of World War II, he left high school to enlist in the service and returned to graduate from Central High School as part of the Class of 1947. He also served during the Korean War.

Mr. Blazer had been the owner-operator of the Irving Blazer Plumbing Co. until his retirement.

He was a member of Temple Emanu-El, the Jewish War Veterans, the Touro Fraternal Association, and the Masons.

He leaves a son, Steven Blazer of Providence; two daughters, Rhonda Colen of Pikesville, Md., and Linda Hankin of Marlboro, Mass.; a brother, Melvin Blazer of Warwick; and six grandchildren. He was a brother of the late Selma Stone.

A funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will follow in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
