

P.S.B. 12-16-1997

ROBERT D. BLOCK, 65, of New Rochelle, N.Y., president of B. Safe Industries, a company that manufactures Swat and tactical equipment, died Dec. 10 at Sound Shore Hospital in New York. He was the husband of Lita (Goodstein) Block.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Morris and Mamie (Brown) Block. He was a graduate of the University of Rhode Island. Mr. Block served as a second lieutenant in the Army Medical Corps from 1954 to 1956.

He had recently returned from Jordan where he was in a group of 55 vendors selected by the Jordanian Royal Family to show their wares at Jordan's first trade show.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Michael Block of Hartsdale, N.Y.; a daughter, Linda Purcell of Melbourne, Australia; a sister, Evelyn Goldstein of Cranston; and a granddaughter. He was the brother of the late Muriel Sonnenfeld.

*BLOCK
Robert*

...angements.

BLOCK, Robert D.

December 10, 1997. In New Rochelle, NY. Husband of Lita (Goodstein) Block. Father of Michael Block of NY, Linda Purcell of Australia. Grandfather of Hannah. Brother of Evelyn Goldstein of Cranston and the late Muriel Sonnenfeld. Memorial week will be observed at his late residence and at the home of Evelyn Goldstein in Cranston, Tues.-Thurs. evening. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to your favorite charity or to the Robert D. Block Endowment Fund, YM&YWH of Mid-Westchester, 999 Wilmot Rd., Scarsdale, NY 10583.