

BOCHNER,
SADIE
(GALLUP)

PJ B 11-10-03

Cranston

SADIE BOCHNER, 95, of Seven Mile Road, died Friday at Cra-Mar Meadows Nursing Home.

She was the wife of the late Max Bochner. Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Fred and Hattie (Scolnick) Gallup, she had lived in Providence and Cranston for 91 years.

Mrs. Bochner was a member of Hadassah.

She leaves a stepdaughter, Lillian Burwasser in New Jersey; and three grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Charlotte Bernstein, and Earl and Henry Gallup.

A graveside service will be held today at 2 p.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

BOCHNER, Sadie (Gallup)

November 7, 2003. Beloved Wife of the late Max Bochner. Residence Seven Mile Rd., Cranston. Dear Step-Mother of Lillian Burwasser, NJ. Loving Sister of the late Charlotte Bernstein, Earl Gallup & Henry Gallup. Devoted Grandmother of Robert David, Peter Neil & Daniel and Great-Grandmother of five. Graveside Service Monday at 2:00 PM in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the charity of your choice. Shiva will be private. The family was assisted with its arrangements by the SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL.