BOLUSKY, ROSALIND

DOROTHY, age 86, a resident of Tulsa, Oklahoma and formerly of Pawtucket, RI passed away January 10, 2012. She was the wife of the late Mervin Bolusky to whom she was married to for 56 years. Born in Fall River, MA, she was the daughter of the late Philip and Sayde (Madowsky) Rubinstein.

Rosalind graduated from BMC Durfee High School in Fall River at the age of 14, the youngest student to ever graduate from BMC Durfee and went on to Thibodaux Business School in Fall River where she graduated at the age of 16. She worked as a bookkeeper in a number of businesses in both Fall River and Providence eventually becoming a co-owner of the Flint Mills in Fall River. As part of the Flint Mills operation she established and managed a retail clothing outlet. Her two main passions in life were community service and her family. As a leader within the Jewish community of Providence she served as President of both the Pawtucket-Central Falls Chapter of Hadassah and the State of Rhode Island, President of the local chapter of the National Council of Jewish Women, President of the Temple Emanu-El Sisterhood, as well as serving on the Board of Directors for Temple Emanu-El and the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island. She received many awards and honors for her service including being named the Family of the
