EDWARD BOMES, 91, of 215

Freeman Parkway and Miami Beach, Fla., president of Rhode Island Lumber Co., Providence, and the Elmwood Amusement Co., died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital, Providence.

He was the husband of Lillian (Dick) Bomes. They were married for more than 55 years. Born in Providence, he was the son of the late Samuel and Dana (Borntside) Bomes.

Mr. Bomes was a World War II veteran of the Army Air Forces. He was a founder of the Congregation Sons of Abraham, where he and his family built the former synagogue, and a member of Temple Emanu-El and its Men's Club.

He was a 32-degree Mason and a Shriner and was associated with the Barney Merry and Redwood Lodges. He was a lifelong member of the Elks, United Commercial Travelers, and the Aurora Civic Association. He was known for his charitable works and as a volunteer at Miriam Hospital.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Stephen D. Bomes of Los Angeles; a daughter, Barbara Edell of San Diego, Calif.; and three granddaughters.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in Temple Emanu-El, Providence, with a graveside service in Lincoln Cemetery to follow.
