Dr. Marshall Bornstein, DDS, at 70

WARWICK — Dr. Marshall Bornstein, DDS, 70, of 692 Orleans Court, a dentist for 45 years, who maintained an office at 40 Toll Gate Road, died today at Kent County Memorial Hospital after an illness. He was the husband of the late Elizabeth (Rodinsky) Bornstein.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Samuel and Ethel (Mistofsky) Bornstein. He lived in Cranston for seven years before moving to Warwick 35 years ago.

Dr. Bornstein was a graduate of Providence College and Tufts University Dental School. He was a Navy veteran of World War II.

He was a past president and a past chairman of the board of directors of the Touro Fraternal Association. He was a member of Rhode Island Jewish Fraternal and a past president of Temple Beth Am.

Dr. Bornstein was a member of the Round Table Commission of the Boy Scouts of America, and he also was a member of the Jewish Committee of the Boy Scouts of America.

He leaves a son, Thomas Bornstein, with whom he lived; two daughters, Beryl Lions of Chechire, Conn., and Robin Sagerin of Belmont, Mass., and seven grandchildren.

The funeral will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Mt. Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
