

BOROD,

MORTON

5-30-62

MORTON BOROD

Funeral services for Morton Borod, 61, of 117 Burlington Street, a tire dealer for more than 40 years, who died May 30 at his home, were held the same day in Temple Emanuel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Mr. Borod was the founder with his late father, Samuel Borod, of the Bridge Tire and Supply Co., of Pawtucket.

He was born in Providence on Sept. 16, 1900, a son of the late Samuel and Clara (Rubin) Borod. He was a graduate of Classical High School and attended Brown University.

He was a member of Temple Emanuel and its Men's Club, the Providence Hebrew Sheltering Society, the Jewish Community Center, the Pawtucket Boys Club, the Pawtucket Memorial Hospital, the Gold Menorah Club of B'nai B'rith, the board of trustees of the Jewish Home for the Aged, the board of directors of the National Independent Tire Dealers of America, the Pawtucket Business Chamber, the Miriam Hospital Association and the Ledgemont Country Club.

Mr. Borod is survived by his wife, Mrs. Pearle (Morrison) Borod; a son, Robert Borod; a daughter, Mrs. Philip Shaulson; two sisters, Mrs. Fanny Lawrence and Mrs. Katherine Brownstein; two brothers, Louis and Esmond Borod, and three grandchildren, all of Providence.