

BOROD,
ROBERT L.

8-30-02

ROBERT L. BOROD, 70, of Martha's Vineyard, West Tisbury, a retired production manager of stage and television shows, died Monday at home.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Morton and Pearl (Morrison) Borod, he had lived in New York City for most of his adult life before retiring to Martha's Vineyard in 1997.

Mr. Borod was a stage manager for 35 years, including productions on Broadway and the West Coast, and with numerous touring companies and of major TV events. He was a member of Actors Equity.

Mr. Borod was a 1954 graduate of Brown University. He joined the Air Force after college in 1954 and was stationed in France. After military service, he returned to Providence and began to work at the Warwick Summer Theater before he moved to New York City.

His first show on Broadway was Drat! The Cat! in 1965, and his last musical production was Taking Sides, a 1996 show produced by Alexander H. Cohen, who also enlisted Mr. Borod for his productions of the Tony Awards, and Night of 100 Stars at Radio City Music Hall.

He leaves three nieces, Susan Jones of Wakefield, Deborah Rose of Seekonk and Patricia Gibbons of Warwick, and a grandnephew and a grandniece. He was the brother of the late Harriet and Arnold Borod.

The funeral will be held Sunday at 11 a.m. from Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
