BOTVIN, DAVID

82, passed away Friday December 26, 2014 with his wife and children by his side. He was the husband of Ardean (Dress) Botvin; they were married for 62 years. Born in Providence he was the son of the late Max and Hattie (Sharp) Botvin.

He was a part owner of the family business, Colonial Motor Sales for over 50 years. He served for 4 years in the Air Force as an airplane mechanics instructor. He was an avid boater and owned boats for 30 years. He was a member of the E. Greenwich Yacht Club, served as commander of the Power Squadron, and was a member of Temple Beth El.

His family was very important to him and he loved spending time with them. He was a dear father to Lisa Schreiber and her husband Michael and Bruce Botvin and his wife Amy; a loving brother to Burton "Sonny" Botvin and his wife Carolyn; a devoted grandfather to Eric and Allison Schreiber and Emily and Matthew Botvin. He was a brother of the late Marilyn Swartz.

A funeral service will be held Tuesday December 30th at 1PM at Temple Beth El, 70 Orchard Ave, Providence with burial in Lincoln Park Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to the Louis and Phyllis Dress Scholarship Fund at Temple Beth El, 70 Orchard Ave, Providence, RI. Shiva will be held at his late residence Tuesday 7-9PM, Wednesday-Thursday 2-4 and 7-9PM, and Friday 1-3PM and at the residence of Michael and Lisa Schreiber Saturday 7-9PM.
