

BREM,
Francine

P.S. 912 6199

FRANCINE STEINER BREM, 46, of 55 Huling Lane, professor of pediatric nursing at Rhode Island College, retiring in 1993 because of illness, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. She was the wife of Dr. Andrew Brem.

Born in New York City, a daughter of Nathan Steiner of Queens, N.Y., and the late Beatrice (Pruder) Steiner, she moved to Rhode Island in 1979.

Mrs. Brem received her undergraduate degree in elementary education from Queens College, City University of New York, and attended Columbia University School of Nursing, graduating with a bachelor of science in nursing in 1975. While working as a nurse at New York

Hospital, she earned a master's degree in nursing from New York University.

She served as a certified parent advocate for the Rhode Island Parent Information Network and on the board of directors of the East Greenwich Co-operative Nursery. She was a member of Temple Sinai.

Besides her husband and father, she leaves two sons, Matthew Benjamin Brem and Douglas Jacob Brem, both of East Greenwich, and a sister, Dianne Steiner of New York City.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. in Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
