

? 1958

Charles Brier

Jewelry Manufacturer
Dies at His Home Here

Charles Brier, 60, treasurer and one of the founders of the Brier Mfg. Co., Providence jewelry manufacturers, died yesterday at his home, 35 Emeline St., Providence.

Mr. Brier was the son of the late Abraham and Rachel (Rubin) Brier. He was educated in Providence and had been an officer of the Brier company since it was formed.

He was a member of the board of directors of the General Jewish Committee of Providence, treasurer of the Jewish Home for the Aged and was active in a number of other civic activities.

He was a charter member of Temple Emanu El and a life member of Miriam Hospital and Brandeis University. He was a member of the Elks and was past master of Redwood Lodge A.F.&A.M. He was a charter member of the Ledgemont Country Club.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Blanche (Steiner) Brier; two daughters, Mrs. Charles Gennert of Newton, Mass., and Miss Betty Ann Brier of Providence; two sisters, Mrs. Samuel M. Magid of Miami Beach, Fla., and Mrs. Harry A. Finklestein of Providence; five brothers, Herman Brier of Winchester, Mass., and Morris, Samuel, Benjamin and Max Brier of Providence, and one grandson.

The funeral was held this afternoon at Temple Emanu-El on Morris Avenue. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery in Warwick. Memorial week will be observed at the residence.

BRIER, CHARLES