

Faye C. Brier

PROVIDENCE — Faye C. Brier, 61, of 16 Clarendon Ave., a former costume designer and sewing teacher, died last night at Hattie Ide Chaffee Home, East Providence. She was the wife of Stanley J. Brier.

Born in Miami, Fla., she was a daughter of the late Morris and Gertrude Cowen. She had lived in Providence for more than 40 years.

Mrs. Brier attended University of Miami and Rhode Island School of Design.

She was costume designer for Cabot Street Playhouse. Mrs. Brier also taught sewing at Wheeler School and was costume designer for the school's Theater Department for eight years until retiring three years ago because of illness.

She was a member of Temple Beth-El.

Besides her husband, she leaves a daughter, Amy Brier of Providence; two sons, Bruce A. Brier of Providence and Gordon S. Brier of Philadelphia; a sister, Sybil Lubin of McLean, Va.; two brothers, Raymond and Myron Cowen, both of Miami, Fla.; and two grandchildren.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at noon at Temple Beth-El, Orchard and Butler Avenues. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

BRIER, FAYE C.

FD 4-21-87