

PJ-B-3-31-93

Sarah Brockman

PROVIDENCE — Sarah Brockman, 83, of the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., a clerk for the City of Pawtucket for many years before retiring in the 1970s, died today at the home. She was the widow of Samuel Brockman and of Louis Glass.

Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, she was a daughter of the late Joseph and Lena (Fishbein) Goldblatt. She lived in Providence for five and one-half years and previously lived in Pawtucket for many years.

Mrs. Brockman had attended the former Bryant Stratton Business School, now Bryant College. She was a singer and entertainer in Rhode Island area.

Mrs. Brockman was a member of Congregation Ohawe Shalom.

There are no immediate survivors.

A graveside funeral service will be held Thursday at noon at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. ✓

BROCKMAN, Sarah (Goldblatt)

March 31, 1993. Residence The Jewish Home for the Aged. Beloved wife of the late Samuel Brockman and the late Louis Glass. Graveside funeral services Thursday 12 Noon at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Rd, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to The Alzheimer's Association. Shiva will be private. Arrangements by The MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St. (corner of Doyle Ave.) ✓

BROCKMAN,
Sarah