DOROTHY BRODSKY

BRODSKY,
Dorothy

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. — Dorothy Brodsky, 86, formerly of Shalom Apartments, Warwick, died Nov. 16 at the New Bedford Jewish Convalescent Home in New Bedford, Mass., where she had moved two weeks ago. She was the widow of David W. Brodsky.

Born in New Bedford, she was a daughter of the late Israel and Ida (Wainer) Scher. She lived in Warwick for two years, and previously had lived in Torrance, Calif., for 20 years and in North Miami Beach, Fla., for 20 years.

She was the proprietor of the former Chamberlain Flower Shop in New Bedford for eight years, in the late 1940s and early 1950s.

She was a member of the Congregation Ahavath Achim of New Bedford and of the Social Seniors of Warwick.

She was a lifetime member of the Brandeis University Women's Association and was a past president of the New Bedford Council of Jewish Women, the Sisterhood of the Congregation of Ahavath Achim, the New Bedford Chapter of Hadassah, the Betsy Winslow Parent Teachers Association, the Moorings Women's Club of Florida, and the Women's American ORT in California. She was a past director of the Southern New England Parent Teachers Association.

She leaves a daughter, Ilene Winegard of Bristol, four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. She was the mother of the late Audrey Rosen.

A graveside funeral service was held Nov. 20 at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick. Service was coordinated by Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence.
